Borough Council In Important Meeting

BUDGET FOR 1922 PASSED. TAX MILLAGE ESTABLISHED FOR CURRENT YEAR'S EXPENSES

The regular monthly meeting of Borough Council was held in Elm Hall on Monday night, January 9th. Business of more than usual importance was transacted at this meeting, when the budget for 1922 was considered and passed on second and final readings, and the tax rate for the present year established.

The appropriation to defray expenses of the Borough for 1922 amounts to $42,375, as compared to $36,200, the amount in last year's appropriation. The tax rate, however, is to remain the same, 15 mills. The difference in anticipated expenses is covered by the increase of assessed valuations in the Borough during the past year, which necessitates no increase in the tax rate.

At this, the first regular meeting of the new Council, the Borough officers were elected. The positions filled by vote of the councilmen were, Street Commisioner, Borough Solictor, Building Inspector, Borough Clerk, and Treasurer. The former incumbents were unanimously re-elected. A list of the complete Borough Government as it now stands is printed below. This list also includes the new committees of Council, as announced Monday by President W. R. D. Hall.

INTERESTING TALK ON MILK-NUTRITION FEATURES TUESDAY'S MEETING OF CLUB

The talk on Milk-Nutrition by Dr. Hannah McK. Lyons at the Club meeting on Tuesday, should give those who heard her, a determination to have only nutritious food on their tables, especially for their children. She made it clear that pure milk is a very necessary food. She gave examples of children who were under nourished, and responded quickly to health when milk was added to their diet. It must be the whole milk, never with the cream removed, for it is in the cream that very valuable properties are found.

The inactive child is usually the unnourished child. Malnutrition occurs as truly in homes of a beautiful table, as in the house of little food. It is the problem of the parent to see that the child eats nourishing food. The child who goes to school with little or no breakfast stands a great chance to

Prof. Nice to Lead Choral Again

ACCEPTS LEADERSHIP OF NARBERTH MUSICAL ORGANIZATION FOR SECOND TERM

The Board of Directors and members of the Narberth Choral Society gave their Musical Director, Prof. Clarence C. Nice, a rousing welcome and vote of esteem and confidence at last Monday's rehearsal, when he accepted leadership again for the coming season.

The Society realizes, with each season's association with Prof. Nice, how extremely fortunate it is to have at its head such a competent Director, whose magnetic personality and efficient training have been responsible for the rapid progress and aggressiveness of the organization.

It has been very noticeable, and remarked upon, that the numerous Choral members have shown the effect of his training in other musical work rendered in Narberth,—in church work, other musical clubs, etc.

Prof. Nice is untiring in his ambitions for the progress and accomplishments of his Chorus and is in a position, through his standing in the musical world, to attain for the Choral many recognitions that otherwise would not be accorded the organization.

He is able to keep alive the stimulus which is bound to achieve for the Society unprecedented local successes.

He has endeared himself to each and every member of the Chorus and to all the interested Associate members and friends of the Society. After one year's hard and assiduous efforts, he has accomplished a project which had never before been successfully established in Narberth—a good choral society.

Prof. Nice is director for other musical societies, and it is hoped we can always persuade him to grant us first place in his magnanimous regard.

His unselfish attitude in all matters and broad outlook on life, combined with expert musical ability, moulds him into a leader under whom it is a great privilege to sing.

The Board of Directors and members sincerely hope Prof. Nice will always wield the baton that directs the Narberth Choral Society.

Visiting Nurse A Help to Many

MANY TOWNS INCLUDED IN SCOPE OF SPLENDID PLAN OF CITIZENS' ASSOCIATON

Some ten years ago the necessity for a visiting nurse along the Main Line became so acute that the Main Line Association guaranteed to finance the cost of one for a year. She did such splendid work and so much of it—and the calls for her came in so fast that she could not cover the ground—and another nurse was put in the field to help, and these nurses have both been paid by the Main Line Citizens' Association ever since.

Junior Community Club to Give Concert

NARBERTH TO BE FAVORED IN HEARING NOTED COLORATURAL SOPRANO

The Junior Community Club has the pleasure of announcing a very wonderful treat they have in store for music-loving Narberth.

On Thursday, February 2nd, they will present Miss Helen Reiter, a most noted Soprano of Philadelphia, who is to give a concert in the Y. M. C. A. Building on that night.

Miss Reiter is exceptionally talented and well known, and Narberth will indeed be privileged in having close at hand a singer of such prominence in the concert field in and about Philadelphia.

Miss Reiter recently made her debut with the San Carlo Opera Company. She has filled many engagements for the Stanley Company, and during the summer sang upon numerous occasions at Willow Grove. Hers was the leading role in "Shame on Bunny," the musical comedy hit recently staged at the Little Theatre, and she is at present singing at the Hotel Dennis, Atlantic City.

No one who is really a music-lover and it is well known there are many such in Narberth—can possibly afford to miss this opportunity of hearing such a delightful program.

Our own Miss Madaline McCoy, will be at the piano—another treat which cannot be missed. Miss McCoy's ability as a pianist is well known in Narberth from her wonderful rendering of the "Garden of the Shah" music.

Miss Margaret Gearmy, another most talented and well known artist in elocution will present several readings. Miss Gearmay is one of the most clever and captivating members of her always-fascinating art—and we know that her selections are going to be the final touch in making this an evening of the utmost enjoyment.

There will be no admission fee—but a silver offering will be taken—the proceeds to be for charity.

The Junior Community Club requests the pleasure of your company at this—their party—and is certain that you will be glad you accepted.

Tennis Dance Next Friday Evening

ANNUAL MID-WINTER AFFAIR TO BE HELD IN ELM HALL

The mid-winter dance of the Narberth Tennis Association will be held next Friday evening, January 20, in Elm Hall. This is always one of the most enjoyable of the season's social affairs, and it is expected that tennis members, their wives and friends, will be out in force.

Stock's Orchestra will "officiate," and this, in itself, is a guarantee that the music will be, not merely good, but the very best that is obtainable. Professor Stock and his jazzing assistants furnished the music for last winter's dances, and the Entertainment Committee is very much gratified that it has again been able to secure the services of the same musicians.

Tickets are now in the hands of members, and any additional tickets that they may needed, can be obtained from C. B. Metzger, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, at 15 Chestnut Avenue. Incidentally, members are urged to use tickets rather than pay cash admissions at the door on the night of the dance, and so far as possible, see that friends who are planning to attend, are also supplied with tickets in advance.

Don't forget—next Friday evening, January 20, at Elm Hall, mid-winter dance of the Narberth Tennis Association.

Scouts in Camp Over the Holidays

Report of Trip to Camp Delmont, Written by One of the Troop

We left Narberth in a truck at half past nine the day after Xmas. All of the way up we were singing and hollering at people we would pass. We stopped at Norristown to get fresh bread, but could only secure a few loaves, so we had to stop at every bakery we passed until we got enough.

When we arrived at camp, we walked up the creek until we came to the log cabin we were to stay in. After we brought the food in, everybody made a rush for the cots. Herron said that he didn't want to be cold, so he took possession of what he thought was a cot, but afterwards found out that it ws a rustic bench covered with the matresses that had to be passed around. We started the fire next and then made up our cots. We were so anxious to go iceskating that we let lunch go until two o'clock.

You could skate for a half mile or more without stopping. And we would skate until we were either cold or tired. Then we would go into the cabin, which was down at the water's edge, making it convenient to come and go without changing our skates, until we were warm and rested. The first night we didn't keep watch, so the fire went out, and had to be made again. The other nights we kept watch and every time the ice would crack, we thought someone was coming in.

When we finished chopping wood the next morning, those that had guns went hunting, but didn't shoot any-

ASHES TO ASHES

Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who ne'er has bumped his blooming head,
While taking out the ashes.
Whose lungs were never filled with dust,
Whose clothes were never ripped and mussed,
And filled with spacious gashes.

If such there be, he is a freak:
The stuff we juggle every week
Is filled with coals that burn us.
We needs must rise at break of day,
To help the ash men take away
The dregs of stove and furnace.

Let's hope that soon the town can pay
To have the ash men haul away
The boxes from our basements.
Then when the wagons come along,
We'll greet them with a cheery song,
And watch them from the casements.

Communications

To the Editor of Our Town:

As Narberth is a progressive town, may we not do some things politically that would be wise in many larger towns.

Regardless of the change in politics, let us keep Mr. Haws in our post office.

Mr. Haws has surely been progressive. He has given us splendid services all through the trying years of the war with its extra work and responsibilities.

He has given us most efficient services during every holiday season as well as this year.

This is our opportunity to let him know we appreciate his work.

Can we not get together on this, and let Mr. Fletcher Stites, our able townsman, be our spokesman at Washington that we want to retain Mr. Edward S. Haws.

One-two-three—hurrah for Mr. Haws.

A Republican.

WORK OF THE FORESTRY DEPARTMENT.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 5.—The Pennsylvania Department of Forestry last year distributed free 2,962,089 young forest trees. They were given to 1,091 owners of land in this State. It was the second largest annual distribution of forest trees in the history of the department.

The leading varieties planted were white pine, Norway spruce, Scotch pine, Japanese larch, sugar maple, black locust, and white ash.

Last fall the Department of Forestry gave away 190,833 trees to 125 applications. Among the trees supplied were 2,048 ornamental trees, which averaged three feet in height. They were planted on the grounds of public schools, churches, and municipal parks.

The department will have about 3,500,000 trees for free distribution in 1922.

RESIDENT FISHERMAN'S LICENSE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1922.

The Resident Fisherman's License Law, which was approved by the Governor the 16th day of May, 1921, became effective the 1st day of January, 1922, and provides that all citizens of the State of Pennsylvania (male or female) over twenty-one years of age must take out a license to fish or angle in any of the waters of this Commonwealth or in the waters bounding or adjacent thereto.

These licenses can be secured from the County Treasurer of any county, or the Department of Fisheries, Harrisburg, Pa., upon the payment of one dollar ($1.00) for each license, together with the cost of Treasurer's fee, if secured through him. In applying for license the applicant must give name, residence, occupation and age. The act provides that for violations the fine is twenty-five dollars ($25.00), and the Department of Fisheries will endeavor to enforce the same.

MEETING OF NARBERTH LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The January meeting will be held on Monday, the 16th, at 3 P. M., at the home of Mrs. William B. Goodall, 108 Dudley Ave. Borough Government will be the subject for discussion at this time.

Do you know how a borough is created? What is the name of the legislative body of the borough? The name given the laws which it passes?

What are some of the more important powers vested in the borough government by law?

What is the name of the borough's chief executive? What is the extent of his judicial power? What are his executive duties? What are the names of the elective officers of a borough; the appointive offices? Do you know who our assessor is, and how he proceeds to assess your property? Do you know how he is compensated?

Do you know who your tax collector is, and what compensation he receives. These questions and numerous others will be answered at this time.

The program of the December meeting held at the home of Mrs. Swope, Grayling Ave., was in charge of Mrs. E. A. Muschamp, and all present not only enjoyed the discussions but felt the afternoon was well spent. Don't forget the next meeting Monday, Jan. 16th, 3 P. M., 108 Dudley Ave. Bring your friends and neighbors. Tea will be served from 4.15 to 4.45.

PLAN GARDENS NOW

Every successful garden is well planned. The time for ordering seeds is approaching and a little time spent now in thoughtful planning will be a great saving. The size of the family and market trade should determine the size of the garden. Plan according to your likes and market demands. For family consumption, double up on those vegetables you are fond of and discard those not liked.

Church Notes.

The Women's Auxiliary has resumed meetings on Monday afternoons in the Parish House and will be glad to welcome all interested in their work.

The members of the combined choirs, under direction of Mr. David Spratt, are arranging for a Choral Even Song on Sunday evening, January 29th, in the Church. A detailed program will appear in next week's issue of Our Town. All members and friends of the parish are reminded to reserve this evening for All Saints.

In furnishing the different rooms in our new Parish House, the following articles are required:

1 rug, 9x12 feet.

1 rug, 12x18 feet.

or sufficient carpet to cover the above spaces.

Several mirrors for the different dressing rooms.

A number of strong comfortable chairs. Of course, these could all be purchased, and if an appeal for money were made, a number of checks would likely be forthcoming at once, but after all, there is no joy so great as that which comes from service in God's work, or from the placing of some personal treasure in the Church home which we all dearly love, and with that in mind, it has been deemed far more preferable to furnish the rooms in our beautiful new Parish House in this manner.

Please do not give the coloring or pattern of the rugs any concern, as they will be dyed at once to harmonize with the general color scheme.

The frames of the mirrors, of natural wood, will be enameled white immediately upon their receipt, and as to the chairs, all that is requisite is a good, strong, comfortable chair, the plainer the better.

It is hoped that the many friends of All Saints will give the above a little quiet thought and then phone Mr. Bell just what part they will personally have in this beautiful service.

There has always been such a ready response to each appeal made heretofore, that we have sufficient faith to believe that each article needed will be received and will have been assigned its proper place long before the formal opening of the rooms on the evening of January twenty-fourth.

Mr. Bell and Mr. Hutt await with interest your phone message.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

The Community Library

It has been decided that Lytton Strachey's "Queen Victoria" be the subject for reading. This biography is one of the most widely discussed books of the year. Queen Victoria herself and Albert, the Prince Consort, are naturally the leading characters of Strachey's analysis, and Albert, especially, is made to stand out in a clearer light than we are accustomed to see him; but there are other illuminating figures well worth reading about, such as Gladstone and Disraeli.

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

"The Crimson Patch," Augusta H. Seaman; "The Sapphire Signet," Augusta H. Seaman; "The Story of Joan of Arc," Kate Carpenter; "Rover Boys on a Hunt," Arthur Winfield; "Scouting on the Border," Everett Tomlinson; "Air Service Boys over the Atlantic," Charles Beach; "Hero Tales from American History," Roosevelt and Lodge; "Strange Stories of the Civil War," Robert Shackleton; "Brethren of the Coast," Kirk Munroe; "For the Game's Sake," Perry Lawrence; "Mariam Frear's Summer," Margaret Ashmey; "The Boy with the U. S. Indians," Francis Robt. Wheeler; "Our Dog Friends," From St. Nicholas; "Fighting in Cuban Waters," Edward Stratemeyer; "With Taylor on the Rio Grande," Edward Stratemeyer.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Samuel Atherholt, two bookcases have been placed in the alcove between the stairs in the library, and the books of the children's department are now arranged and handled as are the books in the adult section of the library. The library is always grateful for assistance.

thing, so joined the rest ice skating.

We had games during the afternoon and told stories at night. There was one coon hunt at night, but all that we did was to make a lot of noise with our guns, as there didn't seem to be any game. This routine continued during our stay.

On Thursday the driver had some trouble with the truck and didn't call for us until eleven o'clock instead of seven. Coming home the truck beat all records, making the trip to Philadelphia instead of Narberth, in about one hour and a half, getting us at the Central Y. M. C. A. just as the parade for the Manufacturer's Hall started. We had to bring up in the rear of the Parade instead of leading it as the Honor Troop should.

We were all dirty and hungry from our ride, so we washed and ate and then went to the performance given at the Hall. After the performance, we came out to the truck and found the engine frozen and a flat tire, so we had to come home on the train.

THE FIRESIDE

The engagement of Miss Emelie Morgan Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Davis, of 405 Kent Road, Cynwyd, formerly of Palmyra, N. J., and Mr. Gustave Joseph Erdman, Jr., of Narberth, was announced at a tea given by Mrs. Davis on December 31.

Commander Charles H. Shaw, U. S. N., spent the Holidays with his family at 114 Avon Road. He now has duty on the "U. S. S. Bell," having command of Div. VIII of the Atlantic Fleet, which comprises six destroyers at Charleston, S. C.

They took care of Bryn Mawr, Haverford, Ardmore, Narberth, Gladwyn and Merion Square. So many calls kept coming in from West Manayunk, Ashland and Llanerch, that a year and a half ago, the Red Cross agreed to finance a nurse to cover these districts.

These nurses are always on call, and too much can not be said about the good work they have done. If there is sickness in a family, and the family are not in a position to pay for one and a nurse is needed, just call up the Main Line Citizens' Association Nurse, Ardmore 426, or the office of the Federation of Churches, Bryn Mawr 657, or the Health Center, Ardmore 1446. She will come as quickly as possible, and will go to the house every day, bathe and change the patient or patients, as it may be, and carry out the doctor's orders in regard to diet. She leaves her patient refreshed and comfortable and goes on to the next house, to perform a like service there.

She instructs mothers in the care of new babies, teaches them how to bathe them, the proper clothing to be worn, and the very essential need of fresh air.

Sometimes a nurse is needed in a family for an hour or so a day, and yet it doesn't seem necessary to employ a full time nurse. The visiting nurse will come every day to give whatever treatment is required, and if the family are in a posiion to pay, this money is turned in by the nurse to the General Fund, to help pay the expenses.

These nurses are invaluable to the doctors and to the community.

An endeavor is now being made all along the Main Line and the outlying districts to arouse interest in this work, to get other organizations to co-operate and to raise some money to assist in the maintenance of additional nurses. January 27th has been set apart as the date, to raise the money, and the Narberth Committee has arranged to give a card party on that date, in the Y. M. C. A. Building. The tickets are one dollar each. If you are not interested in cards, won't you send a donation, as we want Narberth to make the best possible showing.

Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites is chairman of the committee, and anyone who has not been solicited with tickets may have them, by calling Narberth 372 W. We ask your heartiest support.

Community Club Notes

develope any disease germs it may breathe into its system, and they are breathing them every day.

Other essentials for the child's health are sufficient sleep and little excitement. Dr. Lyons showed pictures of undernourished children in Philadelphia, which could easily have been taken for children of famine stricken countries. Malnutrition causes many a person to bury his life's ambitions.

Mrs. Robert Wood gave a review of Don Burn's "Messer Marco Polo," Mrs. Wood made so clear a picture of the work, that those who had not read the book could not help but have a desire to do so.

The Club was delighted with the music given by Miss Ethel Ridge and Miss Loretta Kerk. Miss Ridge sang "Morning," by Oley Speaks; "Kashmini Song," by Amy Woodford Finden; "La Boheme," Aria; and "Love's in My Heart," by Woodman.

The hostesses carried out the theme of the afternoon in serving milk instead of tea. Mrs. W. F. Sibley was hostess, assisted by Mrs. L. Sheneman, Mrs. E. G. Schauroth, and Mrs. J. F. Sherron.

The Reading Circle of the Woman's Community Club held its first meeting of the season with Mrs. Robert Wood, on Forrest Avenue, last Monday afternoon. It was decided to meet every Monday afternoon during the months of January, February, and March, from 2 o'clock until 4.

A part of the afternoon is devoted also to a discussion of the modern poets following the outline of Louis Untermeyer, in his latest collection "Modern American Poetry."

The meeting next Monday will be held with Mrs. Franklyn Dunlop, of 209 Dudley Ave. All club members are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Borough Council In Important Meeting

Boy Scouts as Traffic Cops

Mr. Robert J. Nash, in behalf of the Home and School Association, made a request to Council, that police protection be afforded the pupils in the mornings while traversing the dangerous crossing opposite the Post Office. This is a "Blind" corner, and the danger from speeding autos is very great. The matter of regular police protection at this corner has been placed in the hands of the Police and Health Committee, and definite action will be taken at the next Council meeting. In the mean time, however, protection will be afforded by the Boy Scouts. Mr. Fred C. Patten, Scoutmaster has offered the services of the boys of the Narberth troop as escorts in the morning at that corner. Council accepted the offer with thanks, and the boys have been on duty this week.

In the discussion of Item 11 on the new budget, the question of the removal of ashes from the cellars was brought up. The cost of doing this was considered too great to be added to this year's expenses, and the item was included with provisions for collection from the rear of the houses as at present.

Mr. Hall's Statement

On Item 11 of the bill, which will be ready for publication in Our Town next week, Mr. Hall voted in the negative, and filed with the Secretary, to be entered in the Journal, the following reasons for his vote:

"I am opposed to the passage of the item because I consider the sum provided therein insufficient for the performance of work that should be performed under the direction of the Committee on Highways and Sewers during the present year. I believe this item should be increased to provide for the proper removal of ashes from the cellars of houses within the Borough so that the pledge given to the taxpayers, that this would be done when the war emergency ceased to exist may be fulfilled. I cannot consent to the placing of a monetary valuation on my own good faith in the keeping of my word."

OUR FIRST WEEK OF BUSINESS has been very encouraging. While it found us minus many items called for, it gave us a general idea of the articles most in demand. Nor have we been idle. Day by day new shipments come in and we are beginning to see the solid foundation of a service-giving stock. The suggestions of our first week's customers have aided us materially, and we are very grateful for them.
